From the Principal's Desk

The Annual Plan for 2023-24, developed by the IQAC in collaboration with the Teachers' Council (Academic Council), aligns closely with the vision and mission of the college. Key initiatives include the establishment of a museum showcasing Bengal's social and cultural life, promoting research and publication, integrating ICT into teaching, and facilitating faculty exchange programs with neighboring colleges. The plan also emphasizes career guidance and highlights the college's excellence in sports. Moving forward, efforts will be made to implement the future plans recommended by the IQAC to further enhance the institution's objectives

Vision

The institution is committed to providing quality education to deserving students who lack proper means, striving to uplift those economically and socially marginalized. Focusing on value-based education fosters a holistic environment that nurtures academic excellence alongside humanistic values. Dedicated to instilling patriotic and nationalistic fervor, the institution views education as a means of repaying one's debt to society, staying true to the vision of its founders

Mission

The college is committed to educating those who seldom have the opportunity to benefit from education, aiming to groom students into disciplined members of society and, through them, uplift the broader community. Its mission is to mold students' personalities, preparing them for successful careers and becoming compassionate human beings and responsible citizens. By fostering analytical thinking and encouraging free expression, the institution nurtures growth while instilling an appreciation of the responsibility that comes with freedom. Anchored in core values—discipline, determination, dedication, integrity, trust, and involvement—the college's vision and mission drive its inclusive education goals, supported by governance aligned with these principles

- ENGH (90.38%) and GEOH (86.36%) have also shown commendable results.
- The lowest pass percentage is in Science General course (0%), MTMH (12.50%), and Arts General course (22.41%), highlighting areas that need improvement.
- The overall pass rate varies across disciplines, suggesting disparities in student preparation, difficulty levels of courses, and teaching methodologies.

Recommendations for Improvement:

Strengthening Weak Areas: Programs with low pass percentages, such as SP, MTMH, and AP, require additional focus through remedial classes and targeted academic support.

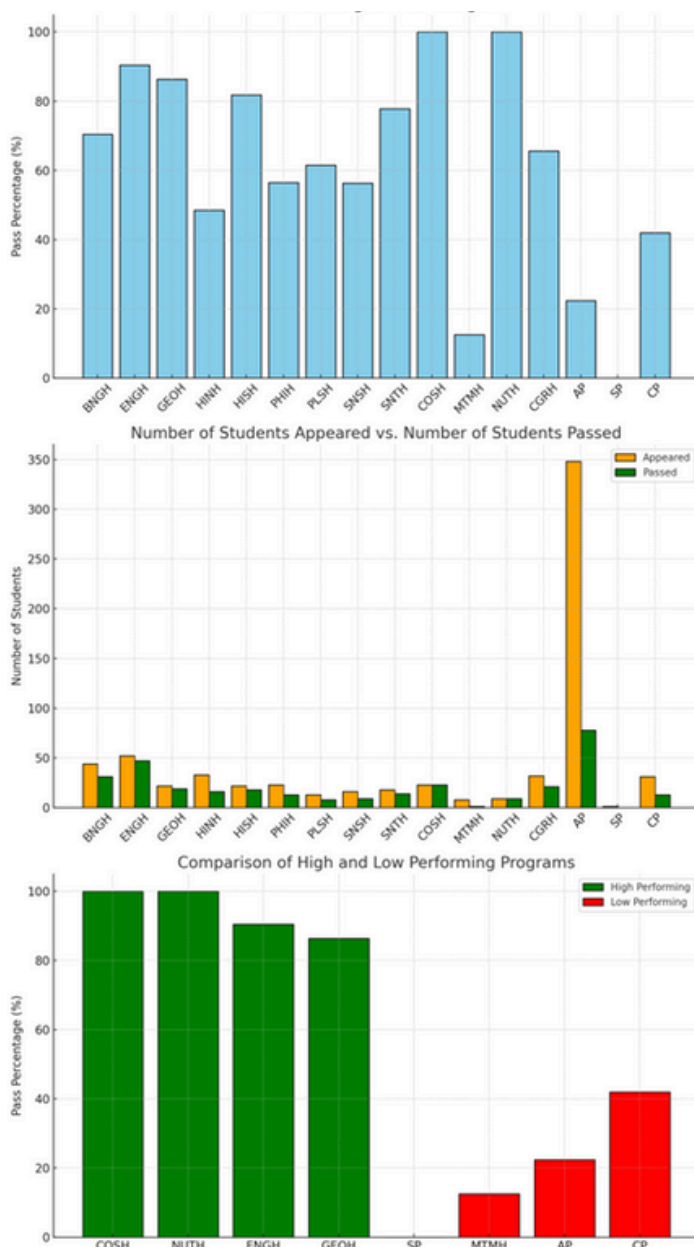

Improved Teaching Strategies: Incorporating interactive learning methods and continuous assessments can help students grasp concepts better.

Student Counseling & Guidance: Regular counseling and mentorship programs can enhance motivation and academic performance.

Faculty Development: Workshops and training for faculty members can ensure improved teaching methodologies.

Regular Assessments: Conducting mock tests and mid-term evaluations can help students prepare effectively for final examinations.

Enhanced Study Materials: Providing additional reference materials and e-learning resources can aid students in better understanding complex topics.

Conclusion:

The overall performance of Mankar College in session 2023-24 is satisfactory, with some programs excelling while others require improvement. By addressing the weaker areas through strategic initiatives, the institution can work towards enhancing academic outcomes in future sessions.
